Testimonial

As a second year QS studied student in TARC, Kuala Lumpur, I had been selected DK Outsource Pte Ltd as my internship training industry commenced on 14 February 2011 to 12 April 2011.

I am reminded that the first actual project I took part as an aide when I commenced my training internship in DK Outsource Pte Ltd were HDB which is located in Punggol Planning Area. I do reminiscence that my first expression to face those thick and complex drawings make me dazzled and challenged.

I could not have complied this internship programme without the support of a member of people and I wish to record my deep appreciation of the following organization and individuals who provided assistance and initially responsible for involving me in the discourse: DK Outsource Pte Ltd, Mr. Dennis Kwok, the company director had provided me useful source of information and took me to experienced the real-life of construction site. A thousand of thanks to Mr. Dennis for guidance and helping me during my stay; (Quality Assurance Department, QS) particularly Madel To-Ong who is the Assistant Manager of department; Michelle, one of the QS in the department which also my mentor during my internship training that I assisted on her all spearhead projects. Thanks to her pleasant explanation and bringing me to take part on various types of projects. I must thank for the guidance and offered invaluable advised, at various times from Noothan, Erwin, Edel, Joseph, Sharon, Win, which are my entire colleagues and senior QSs in this line. I would like to thank to them for invited me to participate on their in-charged projects. Apart from these, I also indebted to numerous colleagues, Shirley, Evonne, Beatrice, Aaron and Alice who are the supported staffs in this company; shared their working practices while bestead on those QSs due to every QSs have their own method on the measurement and calculation. It was helpful to smooth and improve the process of quantify the projects.

Lastly, I must thank to all staffs for having me those invaluable memories and lessons we shared together in DK Outsource which become a memorable one in my life.

Yours Sincerely
